THE FIRST ICE CREAM.

The following article appeared a few years ago in "The Daguerotype," a periodical of short-lived existence, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Freeman, who died a few days since, Bishop of Arkansas and Texas.

"If we knew to whom, or to what, to give credit for the following hit, we certainly would do it. It comes to us without any intimation of its origin, and we give it place as humorously characteristic. It purports to be 'An account of Ethan

Spoke's First and Last Visit to Portland—and

"Portland is the all-freedom place I ever need. I was down there in '33, to see a little about my going to the Legislature, and such a time as I had, y' never heard tell on. Did I ever tell you about the ice cream scrape I had?"

We answered in the negative and he responded:

"Well, I'd been down there two or three days, pokin' in ever hole, an' the 'old seed ever thing that was to be seen. But one day town's sun down I was goin' by a shop in Middle street that looked wonderfully slick—there was all manner of candy an' peppermint an' what not at the windows. An' then that war night with gold letters on to them, hangin' round the door, tellin' how they sold Soda, Mead an' Ice Cream. I says to myself, I have heard a good deal about this

'ere ice cream, an' now if I don't see what they's made of. So I puts my hands into my pockets, an' walked in kinder careless, and says to a chap standin' behind the counter—

"Do you keep any ice cream here?"

"Yes sir," says he, "how much 'll you have?"

I considered a minute, says I—"a pint, say."

The young fellow's face swelled out, an'

he liked to have laughed right out, but arter a while he asked—

"Did you say a pint, sir?"

"Sartin," says I, "but p'raps you don't relish, so I don't mind takin' a quart."

Well, don't you think the fellow's sorted right out. Tell yer what, it made me feel sort of a pison, an' I gave him a look that made him look sober in about a minit, an' when I clinched my fist and looked so at him, (here Mr. Spoke favored us with a most diabolical expression,) he hauled in his horns about the quickest, an' handed me a pint of the stuff as perfite as could

THE WORLD.

The following was one of the late Major

Noah's stories:

"Sir, bring me a good plain dinner, and a melancholy looking individual to a waiter at one of our principal hotels.

"Yes, sir."

The dinner was brought and devoured, and the waiter called the landlord aside, and addressed him—

"You are the landlord?"

"Yes."

"You are a good business here?"

"Yes, in an amiable way."

"I'll be a waiter, and I'll be a waiter."
